

Austin Jenkins Scholarship

The Austin Jenkins Scholarship was established by the Primary Care Initiative in 2022.

Austin Jenkins was a second-year medical student attending the Idaho College of Osteopathic Medicine (ICOM) when his life was cut short due to a tragic car accident on October 10, 2020.

Student Doctor Jenkins was in the Top 10 percent of his class, served in leadership roles, and participated in various extracurricular activities. He is survived by his wife and three daughters.

In order to be eligible for this scholarship, students must meet the following criteria:

- Demonstrated commitment to Idaho, the practice of primary care, and rural medicine;
- Enrolled full-time and in good standing (not on academic probation or leave of absence) at the College;
- Leadership and a commitment to service;
- Evidence of financial need
- Demonstration of academic excellence; and
- Parent

Applicants must submit an essay in response to the supplemental questions outlined below.
